KANSAS CITY, KANSAS.

By C. P. Swancy.

Little Nazimova Austin of 2612 N. Fifth street, who has been dangerously ill, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Ruby Armstrong is somewhat indisposed at her residence, 1954 N. 6th street.

If you will give us the news, we have been promised a full page devoted exclusively to Kansas City, Kans., news.

Mrs. Ida M. Swancy, 2060 North Third street, is confined to her home with a severe cold. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

The election, which took place on the first, was bitterly contested, but the Negro vote was largely with the present administration.

The Mt. Pleasant Baptist church will have its rally of railroads April 5. The pastor, Rev. J. R. Richardson, is expecting each train to bring in full coaches.

Private Roy Weldon of the 92d Division, visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Hale, 1804 Lombard street, enroute to St. Joseph, Mo., to visit his mother.

Mr. Smith, who had just purchased a home on North Third street, was drowned Saturday in some manner, while looking after his fishing nets at the mouth of the Kaw.

Quite a few of our boys from overseas are at home again and seemingly are glad to be here. After all there's no place like home, especially if it's in good old Kansas City.

Remember: If it's in the newspaper line and published, Swancy & Sons have it or can get it. Wait for our solicitor, who will call on every Negro reader in Kansas City, Kans., in the very near future.

At the meeting of the Ministerial Alliance last Monday at Allen Chapel, Dean E. R. Vaughan of Western University read an interesting paper. By his invitation the Alliance will meet at Western University next Monday.

Private Rutherford E. Edwards returned from overseas. He was a member of the Intelligence department, 355th Attachment (Old 8th Illinois). Mr. and Mrs. Edwards are at home to friends, 926 Freeman avenue.

Those who missed the Citizens' Forum Sunday missed a rare treat. Prof. R. G. Jackson has the rendition of the program for April 6. The Forum will go in a body to Lawrence, Kans., April 13. All are invited.

The pastor and members of St. Peter C. M. E. church, Eighth and Oakland, are pleased with the result of their rally—$891 was raised. Mrs. Tennie Johnson's club reported $501 and Mr. George Edwards' club reported $300.

All the services at the First A. M. E. Church were good Sunday. In the afternoon a splendid Epworth League was held. There was no preaching in the evening. An interesting program was rendered by the Mite Missionary Society.

Rev. W. R. Boone of Chicago, Ill., delivered a soul-stirring sermon at the Metropolitan Temple Sunday morning. Dr. Boone was the first pastor of this church and the membership was indeed pleased with this visit. There were six additions. In the evening Rev. D. A. Holmes delivered a splendid sermon.

Chicken thieves have about cleaned the northern part of the city of chickens. There has been an arrest made and some of the chickens recovered by their owners. At this writing we are unable to say what the outcome will be. We understand that the culprit is out on bond, pending a hearing. Such men are a disgrace to any community in which they may live, and the sooner we are rid of them so much the better.

Mrs. R. H. Hayes, 3300 North 27th street, visited her brother, Private James Smith, of the Old 8th Illinois, in Chicago, last week. Private Smith had just been released from the base hospital where he was confined for three months after being wounded in battle. Mrs. Hayes reports him looking fine now and quite well. While in Chicago Mrs. Hayes visited Mesdames Nettie Sexton Seymour, Rosa Bertha Primus and Ella Lee Smith Robinson, all of whom had been formerly instructors at Western University, this city, and whom she reports to be doing well in the city of Chicago.

GRAND AND GLORIOUS OPENING.

The Pleasant Green Baptist Church (Destroyed by Fire July 14, 1918), Rebuilt in Less Than a Year by Rev. Geo. McNeal, Pastor.

"Work as well as pray" has rewarded the efforts of the communicants and pastor of the Pleasant Green Baptist Church, with a new edifice. Under the able and distinguished leadership of Rev. George McNeal, who has been pastor for twenty-six years, Pleasant Green Baptist Church, which was destroyed by fire July 14, 1918, has been replaced by a new stately church edifice, whose spires kiss the clouds and the chimneys of whose bell can be heard for miles around.

The church was formerly located at First and Splitlog avenue, Kansas City, Kansas, but the new edifice, to keep pace with its worshippers, is now located at Fourth and Oakland, a logical and convenient location for a church, and pastor like the Reverend McNeal. His untiring as well as business methods can be well emulated, as in less than nine months after the destruction of his church, we find Rev. McNeal and his congregation and many friends opening their new church, which is proof sufficient that God helps those who help themselves. Sunday, March 31, was a beautiful day. Nature seemingly rejoicing and rendering her assistance in making the day one of long remembrance. Dr. L. K. Williams, the able divine of Chicago, was to have delivered the opening sermon, but was prevented from doing so by a severe attack of the la grippe. However, the pastor, Rev. McNeal, was equal to the occasion, and preached both at the morning and evening services, causing many hearts to rejoice.

The services began at 5:30 a. m. with sunrise prayer meeting, which was well attended and a spiritual talk with the Master of Heaven and Earth was had, thus beginning the feast which lasted throughout the day and into the night. At 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Lydia Rogers conducted the Mission Circle. At 11 a. m. the pastor, Rev. McNeal, preached a soul-stirring sermon, in fact, one of the kind that we remember he preached when he came to us some twenty-six years ago. He was blessed with a full attendance. At 2:30 p. m. the road from all the churches led towards that of Pleasant Green Church. It was estimated that at least 5,000 members and friends were present. To the beautiful strains of the organist, the choir robed in white, marched to their places and sang "Holy, Holy, Holy," which showed how well they had been trained for the occasion by their choirster, Mrs. Sarah Hammett Bartell.

Dr. I. H. Anthony, one of our leading physicians, made the preliminary remarks and introduced as master of ceremonies Rev. D. A. Holmes, pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, who at once took charge of the program, which in itself was a rare treat of intellectual and artistic rendition. Mrs. Sarah Hammett Bartell rendered a very beautiful solo, such as she alone is capable. Mr. N. W. Thatcher, our undertaker, spoke of the past and present of Pleasant Green Baptist Church. Our own Mr. Boatner (baritone) favored us with a solo. Remarks were made by the following pastors of the city, viz., Revs. J. F. Griffin, Moses Williams, J. R. Richardson, D. B. Jackson and W. A. Bowren. Representatives from the different lodges, temples and courts also made timely remarks. The Mayor, H. A. Mendenhall, with City Commissioner Chapman and Brown, made remarks complimentary of the great work done. Mrs. R. G. Jackson, Wm. Whitfield, the Alabama Quartette and the Metropolitan Baptist Church Choir also furnished excellent musical numbers.

This meeting which was attended by practically all of the citizens of Kansas City, Kansas, was indeed quite a success both spiritually and financially. There were eleven souls added to the church as candidates for baptism. The evening services were well attended. The total collection for the day was $1329.75. Every member responding to roll call with five dollars.

THEY SAY

—That two of the hardest things to get rid of are colds and creditors. "Deed dey is."

—That if you expect to avoid criticism you must do nothing, say nothing and be nothing.

—That the meanest woman in the world is the one who will not tell another woman a "secret."

—That Betty and Sam are all "stuck up" because they are getting some new clothes for Easter. Well, they shouldn't be, for they haven't had any for five years.

—That a certain school ma'am washes all the paper money she receives before she uses it. Well, we are not so particular. Just give it to us any old way.

—That a certain dude recently decided to auction himself off at a dollar a chance, but after the women looked him over there were only three chances sold, two to old maids and one to an idiot. Didn't go very big, did he?

—That a Colored man called up a lady the other day and said "Calline Jackson, will you marry me Sunday night?" and Calline replied "Go 'e I will if I can get a dress made by date time. Who is you anyhow?" That's going some, isn't it?

—That a certain "doctah" asked a citizen how he felt. The citizen replied "Fairly well except a little cold." The "doctah" said: "Better get some whiskey and quinine." The next day the citizen received a bill for two dollars. Betty and Sam say that all doctors must have plenty of nerve.

—That a noted attorney was questioning a witness and insisted that he reply either yes or no. The witness protested of the manner in which the question had been put, he could not answer it intelligently with a yes or no.

There is no question but what can be answered intelligently with a yes or no," said the Attorney.

"I can ask you one question that you cannot answer intelligently with either yes or no," said the witness.

"Put your question," said the Attorney.

"Have you stopped beating your wife yet?" asked the witness.

It took the Court a half hour to get order.
